

Name: First-Responders Boot Camp

Audience: MD's, RN's, EMT's, Paramedics and medical & nursing students, and medical-related personnel.

Time: 96 hours

Time and Location: The course will take place at SAMU Escuela de Emergencias at Gelves and surroundings, Seville during May 2019, along 4 days from 09:00h through 21:00h

Certification by: SAMU Emergency School

Definition: The course is designed for participants who are interested in enhancing resilience to disasters through prevention, preparedness, response and recovery from disaster events. It also aims on using a range of equipment in a variety of trauma scenarios in precarious situations such as catastrophes and rescue scenarios.

Contents:

1. Introduction to Hazards, Vulnerabilities and Disasters
2. Disaster Response
 - a. Water Sanitation and Supply
 - b. Food and Nutrition
 - c. Camp Management
 - d. Mass-Casualties assessment
3. Trauma and Medical Rescue in the field

Learning Outcomes

- Identify dangerous scenarios, potential hazards and minimum safety standards.
- Recognize hierarchy within services.
- Provide an understanding of the need for a rapid assessment of Mass-Casualties.
- Get acquainted with the deployment and camp management.
- Asses the need for a medical outpost and commanding structures.

Start Date May 23th 2019

Finishing Date May 26th 2019

Cost 650 €